

I do not want to have the no call list removed or lightened. Telephone solicitation is the most irritating and intrusive business practice there is. People should have the right to decline access for that purpose to their phone lines- after all, we pay the bill to have the phone.